GETTING TO POINT LOOKOUT RESORT & CONFERENCE CENTER

BY AIR: Access mid-coast Maine by flying into Portland International Jetport (2 hrs from resort), Bangor International Airport (1.5 hrs from resort) or Knox County Regional Airport (34 min. from resort)

BY CAR: Point Lookout Resort and Conference Center sits atop the wooded tranquility of Ducktrap Mountain, overlooking Penobscot Bay in Northport, Maine. The surrounding area includes Belfast, Camden, Rockland, Rockport, and the quaint seaside village of Lincolnville. Museums, restaurants that range from casual to fine dining, and unique shopping are all within 20 miles of the Resort. Because of the many inviting activities in the area, we recommend that you drive your own car, or rent a car at the airport. The scenic and relaxed drive and access to a car while you're in the mid-coast Maine area will provide you with the flexibility to see Maine, visit all that the area has to offer, and come and go as you please. All of the major car rental agencies are available to you in Portland and Bangor. Driving directions from the airports and elsewhere can be found at www.visitpointlookout.com. Just click on the Directions icon on the right side of the screen.

BY VAN, LIMO OR TAXI: If you'd rather let someone else do the driving, some options are listed below. Once you arrive at the resort, you may take advantage of their free shuttle service to explore the neighboring towns. The following is a list of reserved ground transportation providers that serve the Portland Jetport. All telephone numbers are in area code 207 unless otherwise noted.
